School's Out for Albionites

Mrs. Holmes Retiring After 36-Years' Service

Veteran West School Principal Is Honored

Mrs. Lena Holmes, 102 South Albion street, Albion's oldest teacher in years of service to the local system, is retiring at the close of classes this week. Superintendent George Walkotten has announced. Mrs. Holmes, principal of the West school, has been in the local system as a teacher since 1917.

Mrs. Holmes was born in Cairo, Ill., and graduated from high school there. She started her teaching career in the school at Birds Mill, Mo., in 1907. After six years at that school, she completed her work for a bachelor of arts degree at Hillsdale college and came into the Albion school system in the fall of 1917 as first and second grade teacher at the West school.

26 Are Departing From Local Staff

School was over this afternoon for Albion's 2,200 pupils below the senior class level.

In the various grade schools, picnics were held between eleven a. m. and one p. m. today. Then the pupils returned to their rooms for "clean up" periods and teachers will complete their records the receiving of report cards. Tea-Friday.

High school students attended their last classes Wednesday. Their teachers were getting out final grades today and will give out report cards Friday at 9:30 a. m.

The senior class, which is graduating tonight, finished its studies last Friday.

With the close of the school year, 26 local teachers are reported to be severing their connections with the Albion school system. As usual, their reasons are varied.

One of the group, Mrs. Lena Holmes, principal of the West school, is retiring, as mentioned in an adjacent column.

Leaving the Austin school faculty is Mrs. Patricia Vin Epps and Miss Joyce Rowe.

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST GRAY

Grays mark 40th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gray (she is the former Luella Mary Vanderlip) celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary on Nov. 30 at the home of their son Robert, 902 Locust Lane, Albion. The event was hosted by all of their children.

Ernest came to Albion in 1925 from Pontiac to enter Albion College, graduating in 1929. He began his teaching and coaching career at the St. Louis Public Schools, St. Louis, Missouri, in 1929.

He said: "This was an interesting area as it was close to Mt. Pleasant, where the oil fields had just opened and it affected the St. Louis area, also St. Louis is the middle point of lower Michigan."

After two years he came back to Albion to teach in the public schools. He will be affectionately remembered by many of his former students as their teacher of social studies, history and government and his coaching of sports in the school.

He said: "Back then you coached all of the sports at the school, not just one". He was the one that started the track team in the Albion Schools. Also in 1931 he also went to Bay View summer school during the summer as a recreational director along with Ruth Dean Deal, a late Albion resident. They were the first day camp and recreation directors at Bay View and he continued teaching there until 1975 when he retired.

Mrs. Gray's hometown is Empire, Michigan, and she graduated from Western Michigan University. She came to Albion to teach home economics in 1942. She taught four years, then took off 20 years to raise their family, then went returned to the school system and taught four more years. She also worked at the Albion College Library in the late 1960's.

Mr. Gray's hobbies are gardening and yard work, and enjoys discussing it with other people; refinishes antique furniture, does a lot of reading and has enjoyed sailing his lightening boat on Lake Michigan, in Bay View, in the summer.

Luella enjoys reading and sewings and one of the things they both especially enjoy are the "coffee clatches" each morning, where they meet friends and enjoy talking to their many acquaintances and are both active members of the First United Methodist Church in Albion.

Th couple are the parents of five children: Jane Fahey, Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mary Alldredge, Columbia, Mo.; Elizabeth Churchward, Ann Arbor; Robert Gray, Albion; and Martha Horn, Evanston, Ill.

RESPECTED SCHOOL OFFICIALS HONORED

If you visit the Albion Senior High, stop in the office and view the portraits on the wall. They are of William C. Harton, principal of the Albion Sr. High from 1924 - 1955 and George Walkotten, Superintendent of Schools from 1939-1960.

Walkotten came to Albion from Kalamazoo in 1939 and served as Superintendent for 21 years until his death in 1960. A graduate of Kalamazoo College and Columbia University, Walkotten taught in the Education Department of Albion College and was president of the Michigan Association of School Administrators. His 21 years of service as superintendent is the longest tenure of office recorded in the history of the Albion Public Schools. Don Harrington previously served as superintendent here for 20 years. Mr. Harrington retired from the position in 1939 when Mr. Walkotten was named as superintendent. Mrs. Vivian Walkotten, his wife, still resides in Albion.

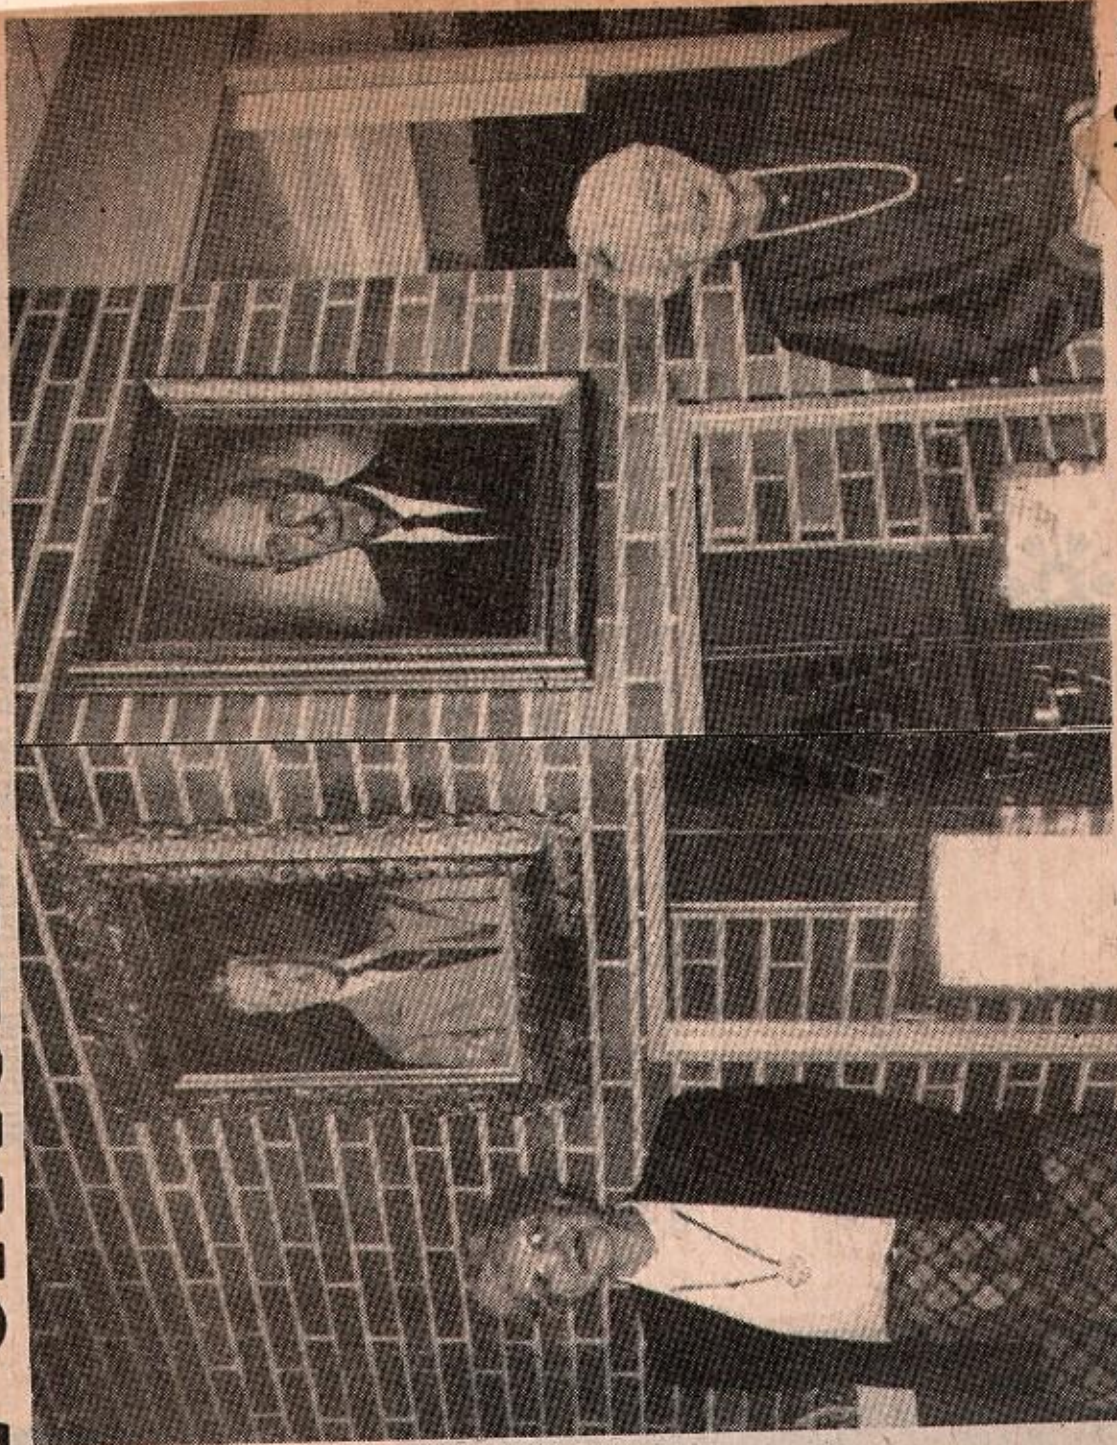

William C. Harton was principal of Albion Senior High School for 31 years, from 1924 until his retirement in 1955. He also taught in the education department of Albion College.

After his retirement, the Albion College graduate was elected to serve on the school board. He was also president of the Rotary Club and served as chaplain of the American Legion Post.

Helen Manning, his daughter, resides in Albion and retired in May as professor and chairman of speech communications and theatre at Albion College.

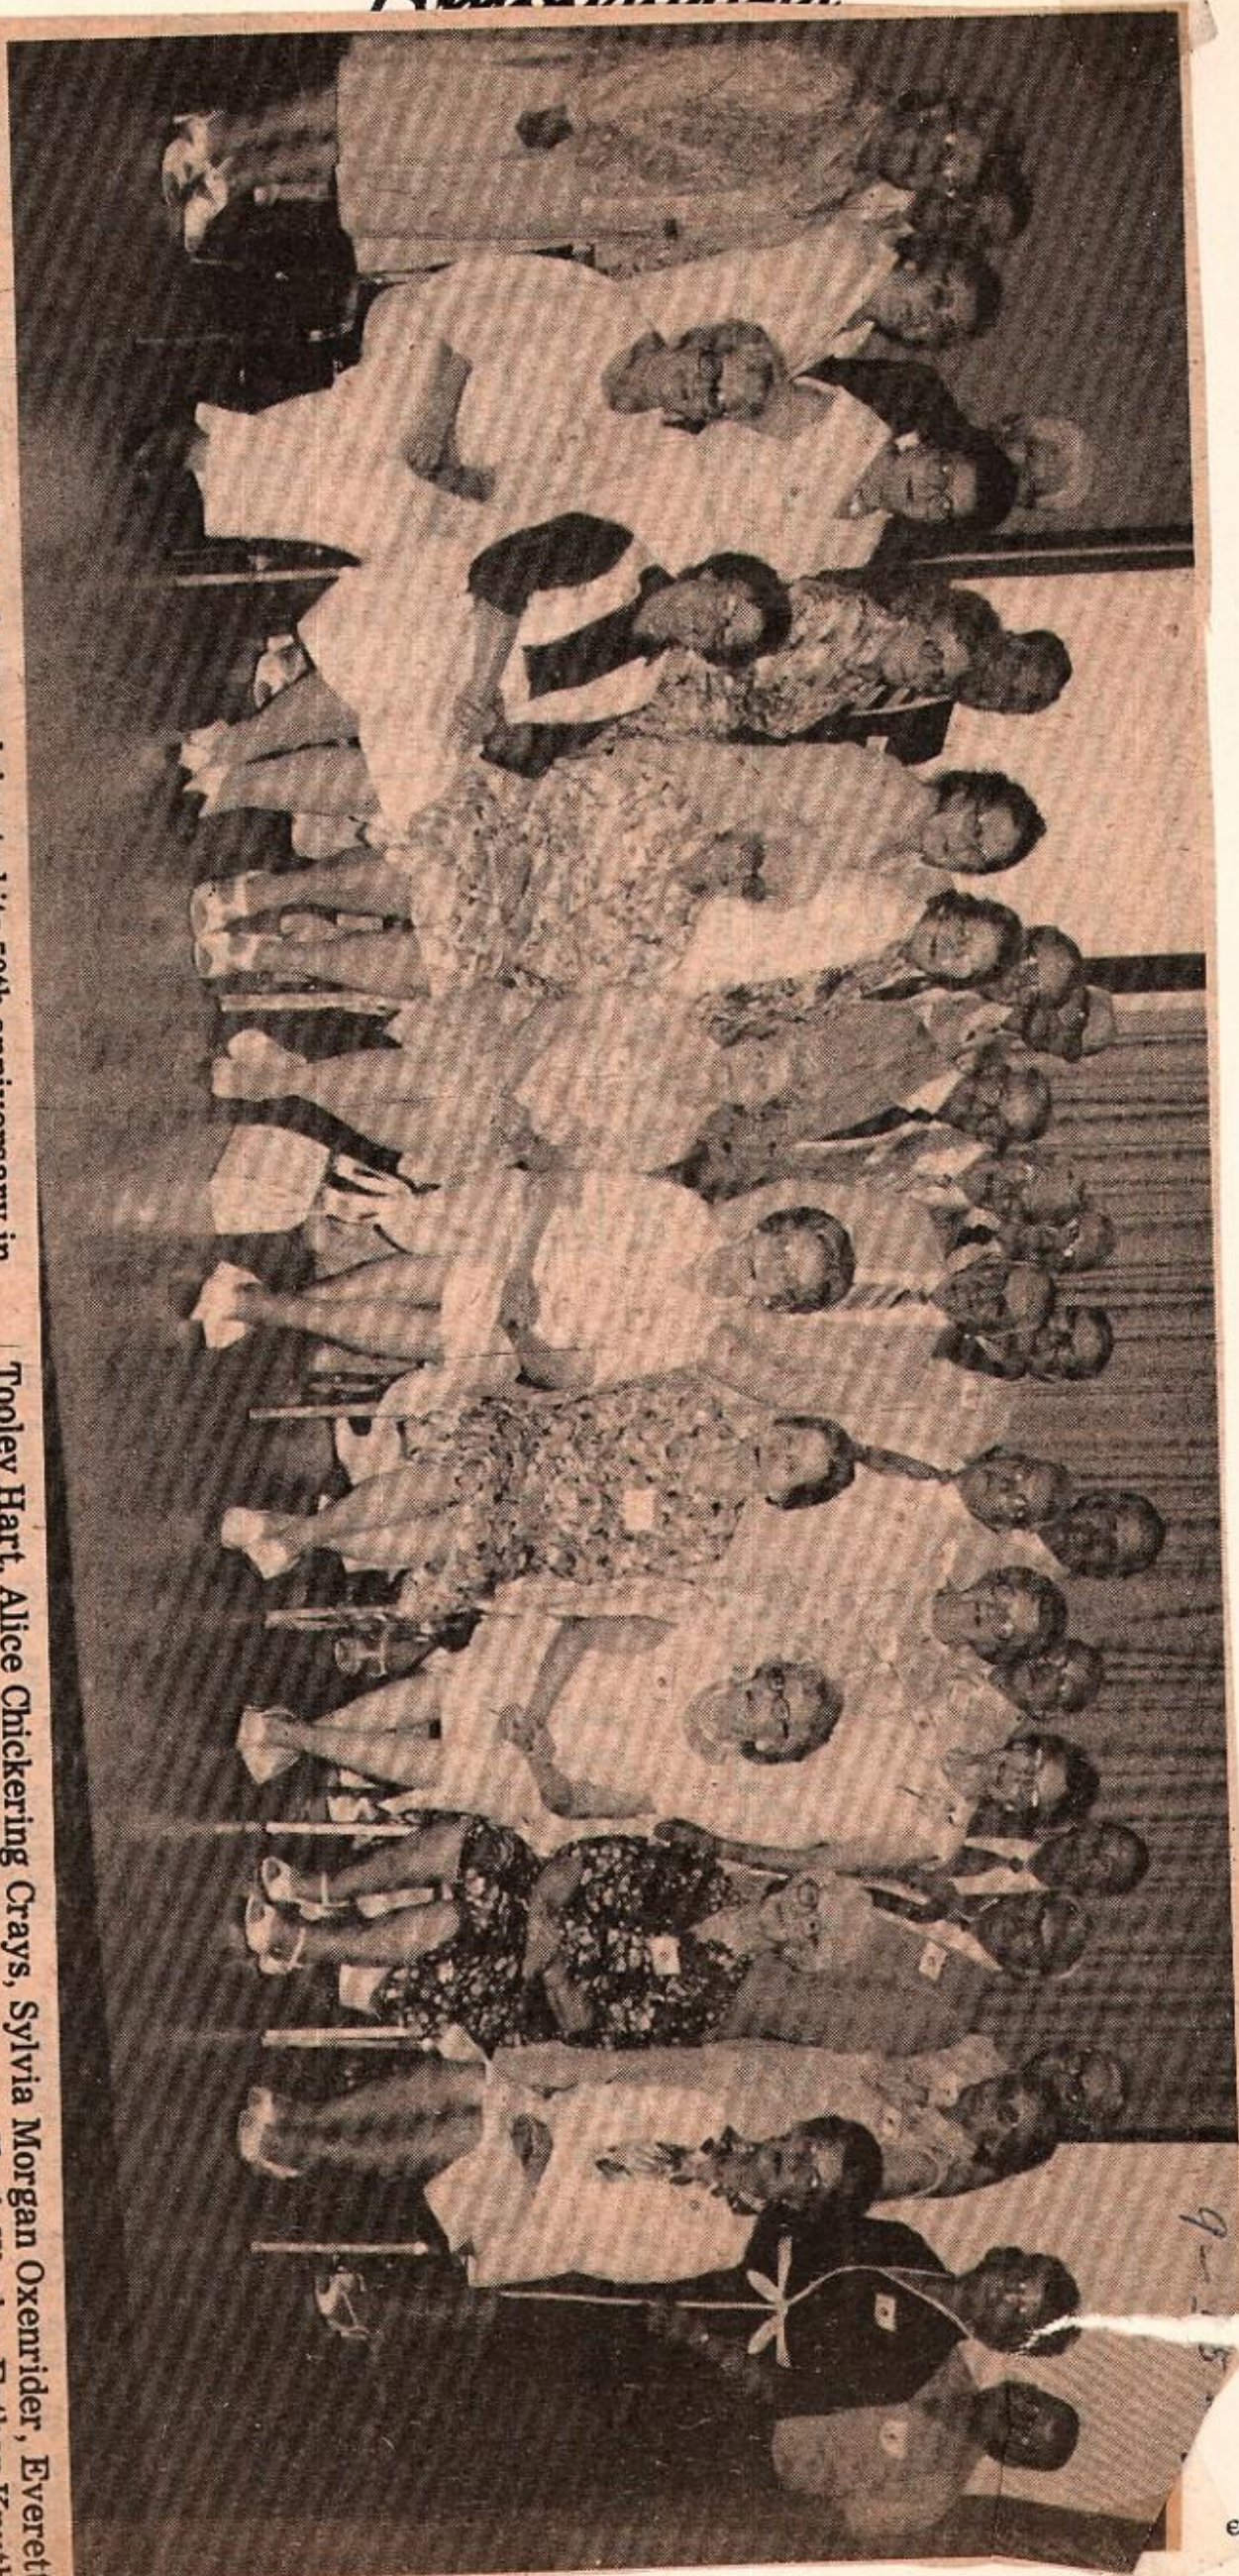

"These two men gave many quality years to this school system. They were dedicated individuals who were widely respected in not only this community, but in the state of Michigan," said Michael Bitar, superintendent of schools.

We, in the school system are very proud of these two men and wish to publicly acknowledge their fine work and dedication to the Albion Public Schools.

Helen Manning and Vivian Walkotten pose in front of pictures of William Harton and George Walkotten that hang in the Senior High Office.

The Albion

The all-school reunion on July 6, a Saturday night, at the Armory will be one of the largest class reunions anyone in Albion has ever seen. With only about a week to go before deadline, more than 435 people have indicated their attendance. "What a wonderful opportunity to share a meal and visit with long lost friends," said Lane. A short program is being planned, mostly just visiting and renewing old acquaintances will be the agenda for the evening. All former graduates are welcome.

745 ALBION HIGH School graduates attended an all-class reunion Saturday as part of the city's Sesquicentennial Celebration. After registration in a tent outside the Albion National Guard Armory, participants enjoyed a dinner inside the building. The event, the first of its kind held here, was termed a big success.

Over 700 gather for all-class reunion

The Albion High School all-class reunion Saturday got off to a great start as 745 former students and their spouses gathered at the Albion Armory.

As the former students arrived and lined up to receive their name tags, they greeted old friends or introduced themselves to former students.

Before entering the Armory, groups gathered on the lawn visiting. When they entered the Armory it was filled with people sitting at tables, some holding up signs with the year of their graduation and others just visiting with old friends or looking for a seat near friends so they could continue their reminiscing.

The meeting was opened by Master of Ceremonies Frank Sibal, an alumnus of Albion High School. After a sumptuous buffet dinner, served by Dolores Mills and her helpers, the program began.

The highlight of the evening was the arrival of Stanley Noakes, a 1906 graduate of Albion High School who brought his actual sheepskin, which was presented to him when he graduated from high school.

After the master of ceremonies introduced the oldest graduate he continued down the years, introducing each class, having them stand and then the fun began, seeing those who stood from each class and old memories came back. People had come from as far as from California, and Florida and many other of the United States.

Chairperson Rita Stahl said, "I am delighted with the turnout and was only sorry that people had to be turned away because we could only handle 750. If our committee had received the reservations six weeks in advance they would have been able to have accepted them but because of their late arrival of so many it was impossible to make the necessary arrangements."
